MOTOR VEHICLE DEALER BONDS

WHAT DOES A MOTOR VEHICLE BOND DO?

A Motor Vehicle Dealer Bond ensures that a new or used motor vehicle dealer adheres to regulations and laws set by the federal, state and local government entities. This bond protects the consumer from the financial harm caused by dealers engaging in fraudulent practices, misrepresentation or other wrongful acts.

WHO NEEDS A MOTOR VEHICLE DEALER BOND?

Most states require some type of Motor Vehicle Dealer Bond as part of the dealer licensing application process. There are many different Motor Vehicle Dealer bond types offered and required, and these requirements vary by state. To determine your requirements, check with your state's Department of Motor Vehicles.
