

NOTARY ERRORS & OMISSIONS (E&O) INSURANCE — ARE YOU PROTECTED?

IT WASN'T THE NOTARY'S FAULT, BUT IT COST HIM $11,500 ANYWAY.

What happened: It was a routine transaction, and there was no way the notary could have known the signatures were forgeries. But they were; and, in the eyes of the court, the notary was at fault, and paid $8,000 in damages and $3,500 in court costs. Unfair? Sure. But for a notary public in a litigious society like ours, it's just part of the territory.

Fortunately, RLI has that territory covered with Notary Errors & Omissions (E&O) insurance. No one can say if you'll ever be faced with a situation like this one, but as a notary, you are vulnerable. With major judgments against notaries now reaching tens of thousands of dollars, it's important to have someone in your corner should you find yourself faced with a lawsuit. That's why we're here.

RLI Requires No Deductible

RLI protects notaries, and pays every dollar of damages and legal costs right up to the policy limit — up to $30,000 — without a deductible. Should you ever be sued, chances are you'll never face any out-of-pocket expenses.

No Lengthy Exclusions

RLI is proud to offer some of the most comprehensive coverage in the industry. Our job is to protect you in case of a claim, freeing you to do your job.

We Pay Defense Costs

Forged, incomplete or otherwise defective signatures can cast doubt on the validity or date of a document. Too often, the blame is placed on the notary, and even if the suit is not valid, you may still need to protect yourself from prosecution. Without coverage, these defense costs will be up to you.

NOTARY E&O BENEFITS

- No deductible
- Covers defense costs
- Protects against errors and omissions
- Employers covered under blanket policy at no additional charge
- Additional notaries covered automatically under blanket policy
- Various limits of insurance available at nominal premiums

CONSERVATIVE. DISCIPLINED. SUCCESSFUL.
